SHOULD RECALL OWENS

BARRY TELLS REASONS WHY

Democratic Leader in State Has Good Cause for Asking His Party Members to Oppose Him.

VOTED AGAINST PARTY
PLEDGES, SAYS WRITER

Progressive Measures Were Side-Tracked by Local Man While in Legislative Halls of Senate.

By JAMES H. BARRY,
Leading Democrat of the State and Appointee of President Wilson as Naval Officer of San Francisco Bay.

The Democratic County Central Committee of Contra Costa county has placed itself in an awkward and most unfortunate position before the people of that county and before the voters of California, by adopting resolutions against the recall of State Senator James C. Owens and endorsing his record in the State Senate.

The case against Senator Owens is too plain and too strong to justify or even to permit defense by any man or any party committee that has the proper regard for individual or party honor. The resolutions adopted by the Contra Costa Democratic Committee are not honest, because they ignore the evidence against Senator Owens; they are not representative of high-minded party sentiment because they endorse a public servant who violated his written pledges.

The resolutions of the committee are so written as to create the impression that the charges against Senator Owens are not worthy of attention because they are made by "certain persons claiming to represent the union labor organizations," who "claim to have certain grievances" against Senator Owens. The fact is, it makes no difference whether Owens broke his written pledges to labor unions or to bankers; he did break his pledges, and therefore the persons to whom he gave his written pledges not only claim to have grievances, but have those grievances.

The Contra Costa committee criticizes the recall petitioners because they say in their recall petition that "Senator Owens repeatedly violated his pledges as a Democrat." The committee attempts to answer that charge by saying that "the Democratic party is abundantly qualified to air their own grievances and correct

MINISTERS TO ASK THE REASONS WHY

Decency has thrown the gauntlet down to immorality and vice, and the crusade which the News announced was about to be started by the ministerial union of the city is now under way. Yesterday the union was scheduled to meet in the Presbyterian church, but as some of the members were unable to attend the gathering was postponed until next Wednesday morning at 10 a. m.

Those who were present announced their platform in no uncertain terms and they intend to see why the police have allowed gambling to run rampant in the town, while no effort has been made to stop it.

"We are going to put the matter squarely up to the police and the powers that be," stated a member of the union yesterday. "If the police are inadequate to cope with the situation we are going to the bat and see that men are appointed who can do their duty."

"We are going to find out why a Chinese lottery joint is running full blast near the subway. We are going to find out why the pool rooms are allowed to keep boys of tender years away from their homes gambling until 6 a. m. and 7 a. m. in the morning. We are going to find

1. Will inaugurate warfare against pool and gambling rooms.

act.
 3. Will take up matter of out why pools on the races are being sold with no attempt at secrecy.

"We are going to find out why poker chips jingle along Macdonald avenue, between Seventh and Eighth streets, and why two joints are allowed to swindle the workmen of this city out of their earnings. If they want complaints we will give them all they want and then we are going to DEMAND that the police take action."

"This proposition of passing the buck from one to another is getting to be a joke. If there is something behind all this we are going to find out. This town is now up in arms against such unheard of conditions as exist at the present time.

"We are going to find out why women are allowed to conduct houses of ill fame under the guise of a hotel and why police officers chat with them on friendly terms. These are the things the public wants to know."

"Goldfield, Rawhide and the other mining camps in their palmiest days had nothing on Richmond. Everybody knows what is going on here and we have been assured of support from every civic body in the town and intend to make it a fight to the end."

Ministerial Union includes the following well known Protestant clergymen of this city:

DROPS FROM SIGHT AFTER BIDDING WIFE ADIEU

What has happened to Henry Jones, blacksmith employed by the Standard Oil Company, 2132 Nevin avenue? Since last Thursday morning at 8 o'clock, when he kissed his wife good-by, left some money with her to purchase some articles in Oakland, he has been missing, and the wife has become frantic in her efforts to locate him.

While the police have been notified, they have as yet done nothing, and the relatives have taken it upon themselves to prosecute the search.
Jones had $50 in coin and some checks on his person when last seen by his wife, and at first it was believed he had been a victim of foul play.

Subsequent investigation has shown that he removed the money, the checks and his watch from his person and left them in the dresser drawer in his bedroom.

Not a soul has so far been found who saw him leave the house. About six months ago he had a serious illness and has since been in poor health and very nervous. He is described as a man 54 years of age, complexion light, 5 feet 8 inches in height, smooth shaven and has a

Detective Charles Walker has been put on the case, and with this official on the trail it is expected that the whereabouts of Jones will soon be discovered.

RATE QUESTION IS BELIEVED ENDED

By indefinitely suspending its order, withdrawing the terminal rates from Marysville, San Jose and the other cities affected, the Interstate Commerce Commission is believed to have put a quietus on the much mooted question which has been agitating county circles for the past few days.

This decision was announced yesterday and comes as a complete surprise, as the commission, when asked several weeks ago if it would reopen the case, declared that another hearing would not be granted.

The order abolishing the terminal rates was to have gone into effect on the first of the month and Marysville and San Jose have been preparing to secure a temporary injunction against the railroads, enjoining them from abolishing the rates until another hearing could be had.

In the meantime the cities affected have been having petitions circulated asking that nearly two hundred other cities along the coast, enjoying terminal rates, also suffer.
The policy has been one with them
"if we don't have the rates why should any other cities get them?" Last Monday a meeting was held in the supervisors' room at Martinez to protest against the action of Marysville and San Jose, and asking that the commission take no action towards abolishing the rates in this county. These petitions will be forwarded in a few days.

While this has been going on here the towns due to suffer have taken steps to carry the matter into the highest courts of the land. The railroads have declared that yesterday's decision practically ends the whole matter, as the Interstate Commerce Commission will never rescind the temporary suspending order which was issued yesterday.

GREAT PROGRAM AT POINT THEATRE

A program, which has never been eclipsed in Richmond, and which has been equalled but few times anywhere, has been prepared for tonight by the management of the Point Theater. In addition to a two-reel feature, a Selig production, "The Two Ordeals," there are three other feature films to be shown on the screen at the popular playhouse.

They are "The Lord Mayor of London," by Kalem; "Only One Shirt," by Kalem; and "The Devisor of Romance," by Lubin.

BODY FOUND FLOATING IN BAY

Remains of Robert Lauritzen, Missing Since Last Monday,
Discovered at Antioch
Yesterday.

BROTHER OF CAPTAIN
HARRY OF THIS CITY

Accidental Drowning Is Only Way to Explain Sudden Ending of Carpenter Known All Over County.

Robert Lauritzen, brother of Captain Harry P. Lauritzen of the Richmond Navigation Company, with wharves on Cutting boulevard, was drowned at Antioch last Monday. His badly decomposed body was discovered yesterday in that city, and his relatives here were notified.

Last Monday the dead man was seen to go to the slips of the Lauritzen Navigation Company. Shortly before noon he was reported missing and although a diligent search has been propagated, the body was not found until yesterday, when the waters of the bay gave it up.

The deceased was the elder of five brothers. These are all well known in Richmond and Contra Costa county. They are Fred, Captain Harry, Christopher and Andrew Lauritzen.
The mother resides at Wood Island, and besides these a wife and two children, who make their home at Rio Vista, are left.

The remains will be shipped to Rio Vista. Accidental drowning is the only reason for his demise that can be ascribed by friends and relations.
He was always in a cheerful frame of mind and there was not a mark to indicate foul play.

He was about 50 years of age and a carpenter. Coroner Abbott will hold an inquest over the remains in a few days.

C. Owens? Not if he believes in the principle for which Hiram Johnson stands. Everything that the Progressive Legislature did and that the governor endorsed James C. Owens repudiated, fought and spat upon.

STATE HIGHWAY NOW READY TO START

Two right-of-way men from the State Highway Commission arrived at Martinez yesterday and announced that within the immediate future construction will begin on this important piece of road within the county.
The men spent the day listing the names of the land owners along the route of the state road, the county line to Martinez and also practically the names of every property owner through whose lands the state road will pass.

The engineers who have been surveying the route for several months concluded their work Thursday. It is seldom that the commission d-patches men to seek rights of way until it is ready to proceed.

BUILDERS WILL KEEP EVERY DOLLAR IN RICHMOND

With a view toward keeping every dollar of Richmond money that must be expended through contracting and building channels in Richmond, and with the view of giving the local tradesmen, the local mechanic and the local laborer, the first and only chance to work on the buildings henceforth to be erected in Richmond, the builders and contractors of the city are rapidly formulating their plans for the organization of a full-fledged Builders' Exchange.

Outside contractors in the past have entered Richmond, secured contracts on buildings here, sublet their contracts to local firms, and decamped, leaving the few local men that happened to be employed on the job without any compensation for labor they performed. In this way Richmond as a city, and many firms and many individuals, have lost money. If the proposed Builders' Exchange is formed, and there is every reason to believe it will be,
this system will be entirely done away with.

Preference will always be given local firms and before an outside contracting firm can enter this field it will be compelled to give the best of credentials.

The meeting held last Wednesday night was only a preliminary one.
Many of the contractors and builders of the city were present and they were all unanimous in the belief that Richmond has an imperative need for a Builders' Exchange if the money of the city is to be kept home where it is earned and where it belongs.

At the present time every contractor doing business in Richmond has fallen into line and when the builders meet in Sequoia Hall next Wednesday it is probable that permanent organization will be effected.

It is planned to have secretaries of builders' exchanges from San Francisco, Oakland and other cities appear before the local men and air their views on the proper procedure to take in the organization and in the fight for keeping the money at home.

RAILROADERS TO DANCE HERE TONIGHT

The whole town, or the biggest part of the dance-loving residents within the borders of the town, will be present at the dance of the Order of Railway Employees, to be held tonight in Bank Hall. The railway employees are planning to spread themselves to show the public a real good time. The committee in charge of the dance has completed all its arrangements, and nothing remains to be done but for the band to start the merry-makers. Tasteful decorations have been installed in the spacious hall rooms.

POLITICAL NOT SOCIAL.

Hitherto we have avoided in the United States mixing our social and political questions, and as a result we have had no class issues. We do not want any class issues, because the very essence of a republic is that all people are equal and those who maintain that that principle is not correct, who are eternally talking of classes, are enemies of true democracy and do not understand the very meaning of the word "republic."

It is very evident, however, that some of the virus that has done so much to cause discord and trouble in Europe has been imported here, and that selfish men for their own reasons, and for their advancement, are busy trying to create class distinctions. The very essence of Unionism is that it will deal with social questions, with the question of wages, hours, and conditions outside of politics, and the wonderful success of Unionism in the United States, and nowhere has it succeeded more remarkably, is that it has devoted itself to its social mission and let politics alone in so far as national and state issues are concerned.

That of course does not mean that men who earn their living by wages should not at the polls vote as it seems to them best for their advancement, nor does it mean that law makers shall not be pledged and held to the pledge of voting for those measures which Unionism and labor desire. All that is perfectly right and proper, just as it is well that legislators should be pledged for other measures that a given community, or a given number of people desire, but that is quite another matter from making labor a party by itself, and confining a political platform exclusively to social demands.

It is very evident, however, that the so-called I. W. W. are not what they claim in any sense a labor organization. They are a political organization pure and simple and they are not looking for work, because they propose, like the French Revolutionists of the eighteenth century, to arrange matters so that work will be unnecessary. To Governor Johnson belongs the credit of having demonstrated that fact clearly and beyond cavil. A committee of the so-called unemployed called upon him. They were the same men, and represented the same men, who had invaded Oakland, Richmond, and Benicia, declaring that they were looking for work, and refusing it when offered on the score that it was not offered under Union conditions. The delegation called on the Governor to ask that they be given transportation to Ogden. Just why the taxpayers of California should pay their way to Ogden they did not explain, but they demanded what they wanted and declared they were on their way to Washington to ask Congress to give them work. "You do not need to go to Washington," said the Governor. "I will see that you get work immediately at union wages and under union rules." He then asked the Superintendent of the Capitol to put them at work at once under those conditions. But they as promptly declined the invitation. In fact they went further and confessed that neither they nor the vast majority of those who were with them wanted work. They wanted to go East to spread their political doctrines, and they proposed to be back next year with a much larger crowd, and the States are to send them back and forward as they may desire.

Later after leaving the Governor a number of the I. W. W. orators announced, addressing large crowds on the streets of Sacramento, that they would take what they wanted if it were not given to them peacefully. They made no disguise of the fact that labor, or the right to labor, under any condition, were the last things they were seeking, and they announced that the principles of the French Revolution were to be proclaimed in this country and carried out, including the Reign of Terror. It should be stated, however, that those ideas were simply the views of the orators and "generals," captains and leaders. The great mass simply seemed to think they were on a gigantic picnic in which lawlessness was safe, and not a few announced that as soon as the "army" got in the neighborhood of their Eastern homes it would see them no more.

The country owes the Governor a debt of gratitude for having exposed the true character of this movement so that all may see exactly what it means and where it leads, and especially is it a menace to the man of small means, because under the doctrine of the I. W. W. the man who owns his own home is as much of a reprobate proportionately as Rockefeller, or Carnegie. As the man with a small home, who labors for a living can not get up and get out of the country, like his rich neighbor, he has far more at stake in the preservation of order and peace than the latter. It is a notable fact, too, that this wandering army is as much opposed to unionism as it is to capitalism. Unionism is as bitterly denounced as the bankers, and the theory that any man has a right to call anything his own, be it much or little, is most bitterly denounced.

The plan of state and government which the spokesmen of the movement advocate is that all should be held in common; that every one should have a right to help himself to anything he wishes; that the hours of labor should be reduced; that no man should be allowed to be the father of more than a given number of children, the limit for the whole human race being the number of persons who die annually, so that the population of the world will never be any greater than it is at present, and a few men—the leaders of course being the few—will arrange for the employment of the rest of mankind and give them what they need. There is to be no marrying or giving in marriage. Free love is as much a doctrine as short hours of labor, and religion, God and morality to be banished. That we have not exaggerated the program that these men asked the Governor to help them spread over the land can be substantiated by any one who listened to the speeches that were made continually and that are made on the streets of the larger cities nightly. The line is therefore clearly drawn and no one can truthfully say that he does not know where affiliation with the "army" leads. It is a road that no man who owns his home, who loves his family, and who respects himself and the rest of humanity can follow. Needless to say that of course it is a road that no man who believes in a Deity can even contemplate following.

CATCHING AT STRAWS.

Senator James C. Owens is trying to secure the indictment of some of those who signed his recall petition on the score that they forged the names of other persons to the petitions and that all the signatures are not those of the persons they purport to be. The effort that he is making is of course a matter for the courts to settle and not for newspaper controversy. If any one committed forgery as Owens alleges, he should be punished and punished severely, and the Senator in bringing that fact to the attention of the Grand Jury will be performing a public service, as every man does who exposes crime.

But whether some of the signatures were forged or not does not in the least relieve James C. Owens of the charges that have been repeatedly made against him, that he was neglectful of his duty as a state senator, that he violated his pledges and that he should consequently be removed from office. In fact the very effort he is making and the great expense he went to in employing a handwriting expert to detect the alleged forgeries shows that he is trying to distract attention from the real issue in this campaign, which is not the signatures to the petition at all, or even the question of their genuineness, but did James C. Owens do and fail to do what he should have not done, or had promised to do?

It is James C. Owens and not the signers of the petition who are of interest to the voters of this district at present. After they have disposed of the senator it will be time enough to get busy with the signers to the petition. Now the senator admits the charges against him by the very policy that he is following. If he was unjustly accused, would he be chasing around the country one day as a good fellow, the next as a male reproduction of the adulteress of the Bible, and the third as the valiant defender of the people—except the labor unionists, of course—against the machinations of the saloon keepers of the Barbary Coast?

What an extraordinary political chameleon our senatorial friend is getting to be. But then a drowning man catches at straws and the senator is fast drowning in the political sea upon which he embarked eighteen months ago with the idea that he could defy and fool the people and please his masters at the same time.

NOT LEGAL BUT JUSTIFIABLE.

The action of the Texas authorities, because there can be no doubt but that the Governor winked at the Rangers if he did nothing more when they crossed the frontier in search of Vergara's body, may not be legal, but it is certainly justifiable. As Texas is overwhelmingly Democratic it is not possible to charge that what was done by the Lone Star State was due to partisan politics and therefore the result is all the more convincing and unanswerable.

The Rangers crossed the line, went to the cemetery where they evidently knew the body they sought was buried, brought it across the line and established by investigation that the man had been brutally murdered. As we have said, all this was clearly illegal, but it was one of the occasions where the end justified the means and where it was necessary to go more rapidly than diplomacy usually moves. While the State Department was temporizing and exchanging notes it has now been shown that the case is one of brutal murder, and no doubt the same results would follow if the body of the Englishman Benton was examined.

One thing that this Texas expedition shows, if it was needed to be shown, and that is that the Mexican rebels are not to be put on a par with civilized human beings, and that the scheme of treating them as if a republic in Mexico was a duplication of a republic in the north of the Rio Grande is absurd. Just what will result from this recovery of Vergara's body remains to be seen, but the Federal authorities can not afford to refuse to recognize the established facts and to act decisively upon them. This is only one of many murders of Americans and such a condition can not go on forever.

WARM BATHS.

The Standard Oil Company having offered to furnish warm salt water for a bath house, Richmond should not lose any time in erecting the buildings and getting the warm water. Nothing proves a greater attraction than baths to a very large number of persons who want some way to amuse themselves. If Richmond had warm baths and a first-class bathing pool she would be able to afford a very acceptable entertainment to hundreds of her citizens, who leave here every Sunday to spend their money keeping up the enormous revenues of the street car companies and its aristocratic English owners, and visiting amusements in Oakland and San Francisco.

A bath house, too, will give the youngsters some place to go, and Richmond has lately demonstrated that she has need of some place where the youth can go besides hanging around pool rooms and getting into the penitentiary or jails. Cleanliness being a kin to godliness, the idea of a municipal bath house cannot be too strongly encouraged, and we urge the city fathers and Mayor Ludewig to give the matter their early attention. By all means let us have a municipal bath house.

If instead of adding canal tolls to the cost of transportation on this coast, the government were to have free tolls, and a subsidized shipping such as European nations have—if, in other words, if the United States were run for Americans and not for Europe, what magnificent ports this country would have on this coast, and what a big shipping port this city would speedily become.

The care with which city ordinances are prepared was strikingly illustrated in the case of the sign boards, which were to be two feet and three from the ground at the same time. The fact that the amendments to ordinances have to be published, and that costs more public money, is of course not a matter of any interest except to the taxpayers, and who cares for them?

Richmond has every reason to feel proud at the figure her bonds have brought in the bond market. It shows that outsiders appreciate the future of this city even more than its residents. There is no better advertisement for a place than good credit abroad.

the same when they deem it necessary and proper." But the Contra Costa Democratic Committee is attempting to shield a man who has proved that his written pledges are worthless.

The facts, the votes cast by Senator Owens in the Senate, show that he did repeatedly violate "his pledge as a Democrat." The Democratic platform adopted at Sacramento September 25, 1912, favored a state law limiting the use of injunctions in labor disputes, approved Senate bill 85 as passed by the California Senate in 1911, and recommended the passage of the measure by the 1913 Legislature. On the anti-injunction bill Senator Owens voted "No," though he had given his written word that he was in favor of the measure. Thus he violated his pledge as a Democrat and as a man.

The Democratic platform favored an extension of the application of the women's eight-hour law, and in reply to the written question, "Are you in favor of strengthening the existing women's eight-hour law by extending it to cannery workers and other exempted classes?" he wrote his answer "Yes." But he voted to mutilate the present law.

The Democratic platform favored the adoption of an industrial insurance system by the state, and Senator Owens gave his written pledge in favor of establishing compulsory compensation "together with a state insurance system to indemnify employees against accidental injuries or death." But he violated the Democratic platform and his written pledge by voting with Leroy Wright to strike out of the bill the part relating to safety.

Thus, on his Democratic platform pledges Senator Owens "violated his pledges as a Democrat," and deliberately violated his own written pledges. That is enough to justify his recall by Democrats, even though the labor unions were taking no part in the recall campaign. The man who has no regard for his word is unfit for any public position, and no party committee can afford to shield or defend such a man. No committee can afford to go before the people endorsing a man who proves that his written pledges are worthless.

In addition to breaking his party and personal pledges on Democratic platform planks, Senator Owens broke his personal pledges in regard to other matters. He made certain promises to labor before the election, and evidently made them in order to get the votes of labor. He broke those promises. Is not a promise made to labor as sacred and as binding as a promise made to manufacturers or to farmers?

Owens pledges himself, in order to get labor votes, to vote for the improvement of sanitary conditions in all places of employment—and broke that promise. He promised to vote in favor of an efficient system for the inspection of weights and measures—and broke that promise.

Sensor Owens received from labor eight questions in regard to his position upon certain measures advocated by labor. In addition to pledging himself in favor of the eight measures, he wrote that the measures had his "heartiest endorsement." When he went to Sacramento he promptly expressed his "heartiest endorsement" by breaking every pledge he had made. Now the Contra Costa Democratic County Committee adopts resolutions upholding the man who deliberately broke his promises. The man who is false to his pledges is false to his party.

Merely from the party standpoint, Senator Owens should be recalled. He obtained votes and a position of trust and honor by false pretenses, which is morally worse than obtaining money under false pretenses.

Now let the Contra Costa Democratic Committee ask itself what Woodrow Wilson would do and say of such a man as Senator Owens. Let the committee imagine itself going to the President and asking his approval of the resolutions passed by the committee in favor of the state senator whose word is utterly worthless. How can the committee expect to get the confidence of honest Democrats or of any honest man when it shields and defends James C. Owens? And how will the committee stand before the honest people of Contra Costa County when the votes at the recall election show that Owens is repudiated by voters who refuse to be represented by a man who has no regard for his pledges?

"Why shouldn't a woman work sixteen hours in a cannery, if my chum gets a few extra dollars from the extra labor?" "What if overwork in a cannery by a prospective mother means saddling upon the community an imbecile child? Why should I worry?" James C. Owens' views as shown by his legislative record.

Remember that James C. Owens is not a candidate against anybody. No one is running for his place unless he is recalled. It is not, therefore, a question of choosing between him and some one else. It is a question solely: Shall a member of the Legislature be obliged to keep his word?

LOOKING FOR TROUBLE

Anybody having trouble with the eyes can find relief at Suite 1, Pillow Bldg., Seventh and Macdonald ave., the local office of Dr. J. H. Schroder, the German Optometrist and Optician of San Francisco. Office hours from 9 to 12 a. m. every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and by appointment.

Richmond, Cal., Mar. 6, 1914.
Dr. Schroder: In order to thank you for your good services I would like to make public my appreciation. Having suffered for many years with pains over my eyes, and consulting many opticians, but their glasses would only serve for a short time, but at last I have found comfort and now am without trouble after many years of trouble, and anyone who would like to find out, write or call on me at my home.

Respectfully yours,
MRS. E. BETTS,
157 Seventh street.

BROOM SALE TODAY.
House brooms, only costing 15 cents apiece, will be on sale today only at the Fair Department Store. The public will wonder how the Fair is able to sell brooms so cheaply, but nevertheless the broom will be sold for 15 cents apiece. The sale starts promptly at 10 a. m.

Blue sky bills, woman's eight hour laws, miners' protective measures, are unimportant, according to James C. Owens, who says he did not in missing seven hundred roll calls miss a single one of importance.

ATTEND KELLER LECTURE IN OAKLAND

Over a score of local residents, among them several men, were present at the lecture of Miss Helen Keller at Ye Liberty playhouse in Oakland yesterday. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Associated Charities, and attracted much attention through its educational ideas. Preceding the lecture a half hour of music was provided by the Oakland High School orchestra. The noted speaker was introduced by Mayor Mott of Oakland in a few well chosen words.

FARLEY OUT FOR SURVEYORSHIP OF COUNTY

Announcement was made yesterday by former City Engineer W. S. Farley that he will be a candidate for the office of county surveyor at the next election. Farley built up a large friendship and an excellent reputation for competency during the time he held the engineer's office of this city. At the present time he is consulting engineer for the Stage sanitary commission. The commission at present is completing arrangements for the installation of a big sewer project.

Another man who has entered the lists for the county surveyorship is E. E. Grow, who announced his candidacy some time ago. Grow is a prominent local civil engineer, who has a big following, and the race between he and Farley is sure to be a hot one.

Philpott Dry Goods Co

MACDONALD AVE., AT EIGHTH

TO BATTLE FOR BLOOD THIS AFTERNOON

Fur will fly and the atmosphere in the vicinity of the First-street grounds will be surcharged with excitement this afternoon when the main office employees' team of the Standard Oil Company will tangle with the boys who work in barrel house department No. 2. For some time the question of baseball supremacy has been a mooted one, and this afternoon the game, which will decide the supremacy, and which will start many another gabfest and chewing match, will be staged at 2:30 o'clock.

Manager Greathouse was prevailed upon to allow the boys to play on the diamond. Special officers will be on the grounds to see that the fans and the active participants in the game do not try to settle old grudges with fists and baseball bats.

Sir Wallace McCurdy has been agreed upon by the opposing factions to arbitrate. Woe be until his lordship if he gets off wrong on any decisions.

The lineups follow:

DEEVER IS LOSER FROM NIGHT VISIT

A burglar whose consummate nerve equals that of a Raffles gained access to the room of James Deever, at the Stenmark House on Fifteenth street Thursday night and rifled the trunk and got away with valuables of the approximate value of $100. While the night marauder was pocketing his valuables Deever was lying peacefully asleep on the bed.

Yesterday morning when Deever awoke he found his room in a disordered condition, and after an investigation found that he was a loser as a result of the unannounced visitor.

The burglar gained access to the room through an open window. No arrests.

BUTCHER SHOP CHANGES HANDS ON EAST SIDE

T. D. Morgan has purchased from Thomas Arthur the butcher shop located at the corner of Twenty-first street and Barrett avenue. He will immediately fix up the place and with the patrons he has already secured, and his knowledge of the business, should soon have plenty to do.

PAINTING AND PAPERING.

Do you know we are giving you the profit made on paper. Say a 25-cent paper we give you for 12¢. Why? Because we don't pay any store rent. We have sample books from one of the leading wall paper firms in San Francisco. Select your paper one day, get it the next. All we want is to hang your paper. Now figure with us. You will be surprised the saving. Just imagine the money made on wall paper. You get this. We paint also. Guarantee to mix all paint on job; use nothing but lead and oil or Acme prepared paints. We run no coal oil wagon. Mr. Contractor, think this over. Your reputation is at stake. If your painting fails in say a year's time. Bad isn't it? Now whether we get your business or not, demand your paint to be of pure lead and oil or some good standard paint and same to be mixed on job. Mr. Property Owner, pay attention.

We have a first-class sign shop in connection. For estimates call for W. E. Walker or A. B. Connor, at SQUARE DEAL HARDWARE CO. 315 Macdonald ave. Phone 286.

... IN THE SOCIAL WHIRL ...

ENTERTAINMENT WITH WHIST.

The members of Richmond Temple of Pythian Sisters enjoyed themselves at whist at the home of Mrs. Alta Cook, 619 State street, on Wednesday night. Dainty refreshments were served, and the evening was concluded with social converse. The list of guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miner, Mrs. Benner, Mrs. Gertrude Vance, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Mossback, Mrs. Benke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cook, Miss Bernice Carpenter, Miss Cora Cook, Miss Gladys Cook, and Gerald Gray.

Mrs. Gertrude Vance won the first prize, Mrs. Charles Benke second and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cook were awarded the consolation prizes.

W. C. T. U. TO HOLD SILVER MEDAL CONTEST

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will have two silver medal contests at the Wesley Methodist Church Monday night. Mrs. Mary Shoemaker will be in charge of the contest. As an incentive for competition a number of prizes will be awarded to the contestants. The meeting is to start promptly at 8 p. m. The public is invited.

JUNIOR BARACAS MEET.

The Junior Baraca boys of the Wesley Methodist Church held a business meeting, followed by a social time, in the parlors of the church last evening. Five new members were admitted into the fast growing junior organization, swelling the membership to forty-five.

Around the banquet board following the business session many stirring speeches were given, of which Harold Smith's talk on the necessity of a Y. M. C. A. building in Richmond was probably best. Those who also spoke were Clarence Cain, Simon Pierson, James Demmings, Hugo Selvy, Edward Hawkins and Roy Sherman. A special business meeting will be held next Tuesday evening.

ENTERTAINS ON WEST SIDE.

Frank Smith, well known grocery clerk of the west side entertained a number of friends at a party held Thursday night. The evening of fun was concluded with a midnight luncheon. The list of guests included: Misses Nellie Allen, Irene Wunderlich, Mrs. C. C. Hecker, C. L. Smith, Joe Wolfe, C. E. Allen, Clarence Pruitt, Ernest Roeder, W. Parks, Way Neville, Joda Lamore, and Frank Smith.

SHAKESPEAREAN RECITAL DRAWS LARGE CROWD

The Shakespearean recital given last evening at the Polytechnic Hall by George B. Williams of New York drew a large and appreciative audience. The possibilities of the great author's master comedy, "Much Ado About Nothing," were fully interpreted. In the comedy characters of Dogberry and Verges the New York artist was especially fine, keeping the crowd in laughter. Not once throughout the recital did he falter a moment for a word, and considering the fact that the play consists of over one hundred and ten closely printed pages, the exhibition of memory was wonderful.

HALL SCENE OF GAY WHIST PARTY

The weekly whist party of the Richmond Hive of Maccabees was held last night in Bank Hall. A number of excellent prizes were given the winners. The crowd present was one of the largest to greet the lodge's activities this season.

At the conclusion of the playing, dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Roe, Mrs. Thies and Parker composed the committee that worked so hard to make the affair the big success that it was.

CONTROVERSY OF PAINTERS IS ADJUSTED

An interesting controversy, which has been going on for some time between the master painters and the welders of the brush, has been finally settled and both sides seem perfectly satisfied. The grievance was started by Zeb Knott, E. A. Marshall and Fred Brunner, master painters, who declared that there were contracting painters in Local Union No. 560 who were carrying cards and still employing men.

It was held that only master painters could employ union workmen carrying cards. The matter was put up to the executive committee of the Building Trades Council, which agreed to allow the local union to change its by-laws to read like those of the national union, and which in effect gives workmen the same privilege as contractors when they want to hire men.

STILL HUNTING FOR MISSING VISITOR

The authorities are conducting a search for William Milne, an Oakland young man, who came here last Saturday to visit his brother, John, residing at 321 Eleventh street. This missing man left his brother's house Saturday evening with the intention of going to Oakland. This is the last that was seen of him. Milne is a structural iron worker and a member of the Moose and Eagles, and those orders are assisting the police in an effort to unravel the mystery.

PARISH WOMEN PLANNING PARTY

To raise funds for the benefit of their coming fair, the women of St. Mark's Parish are making elaborate plans for a whist party and dance, which they plan to give in Pythian Castle on the night of April 14. The social events given by the parish are always well attended, and without doubt the event the women are planning will be more successful than affairs given in the past, which have always drawn large crowds.

POULSEN IS NOT A CANDIDATE AGAIN

O. A. Poulsen, a local businessman, will not be a candidate for reelection as a member of the Board of Education of Richmond, according to an announcement made by Poulsen himself. The election is to be held early next May. The rush of business duties prevents Poulsen from again seeking honors as a member of the board. Poulsen made an enviable record and stamped himself as a progressive officeholder during his incumbency.

LADIES TO TAKE CHARGE SONG SERVICES

Members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church will take charge of the services at that edifice on Sunday evening and an exceptionally fine program has been prepared.

AVIATOR ASKS TO FLY OVER CITY FOR $500

Five hundred dollars is the small sum asked of the Sequoia Club by an aviator, who wants to circle over the city of Richmond. The air man declared he would fly across the bay from San Francisco and take a few minutes to go over Richmond.

As the Sequoia Club was not spending money for any aerial trips, some one suggested that some of the funds from the sale of the harbor and tunnel bonds be used, as this seems to be taking aerial flights at regular intervals.

Can a Democrat vote for a man who repudiates his pledges and tramples the Democratic platform under his feet? If he does he virtually endorses the proposition that platforms are made to catch votes and not to be observed. A vote by a Democrat for James C. Owens is a vote to repudiate the Democratic platform and to make it a farce.

WHAT IS A MAN WITHOUT HIS MUSTACHE?

A playful barber, with a distorted idea of what constitutes a real joke, "put one over" on Dr. E. W. O'Brien, a well known local tooth puller. A couple of days ago the doctor hid himself to one of Richmond's tonorial parlors, where he anticipated a good clean shave and a few minutes of peaceful repose.

The doctor's few minutes of peaceful repose developed into a short little nap, with the result that Mr. Barber either forgot himself or thought he would perpetrate a joke, and he whisked off the doctor's moustache, in which the local gas given giver took great pride.

Yesterday O'Brien, while walking down the street, spoke to several of his friends, but his greetings went unanswered. His friends did not recognize him.

The Richmond Lodge of Elks has commenced rehearsals for the production of "The Elk's Tooth," which will be rendered on the nights of April 1 and 2. H. L. Brown of Portland, Ore., is directing the production. Brown recently arrived here from Marysville, where he staged the play for the lodge of that city.

A carload of scenery, which will be used in connection with the play, has also arrived. The costumes are already on hand. Rehearsals will continue from now until the date of the play.

Among those who will appear in the cast are Charles F. Donnelly, James Snee and H. D. Chapman. The full cast is yet to be selected.

Scene from "Hearts Adrift" Richmond Theatre

"Little" Mary Pickford is probably better liked in Richmond than elsewhere, according to the enormous amount of people that visited the theater last night when Miss Pickford portrayed the leading role in "Hearts Adrift," a four-reel production by the Famous Players Film Co.

The picture will be shown for the last time this afternoon and evening, therefore those who have been unable to see it so far should not miss the last chance today.

"Hearts Adrift" is a drama of the shifting sands of time and the surging, changing tides of life, an epic of the sea with a deep human undercurrent. Mary Pickford endows the character of Nina, the little Spanish girl, with a combined savagery and gentleness that will alternately amaze and charm. "Hearts Adrift" is another Mary Pickford triumph.

TROUT PLANTING STARTS ON JUNE 1ST

The greatest planting of trout that California has ever known in a single year will begin on June 1, when deputies of the Fish and Game Commission will bring the distribution of 19,000,000 fry, more than half as many as have been planted during the past three years.

The heavy planting is intended as compensation for reductions during the preceding two years, which were unusually dry and which left many streams in such condition that the trout were entirely eliminated. In some streams there will be two plantings, and the work will continue without interruption from June until the beginning of 1915. A special car with six to ten men will travel all over the state to distribute the trout.

Reports from the various fish districts in the state indicate that trout fishing will be excellent. The streams are so high that there is prospect of prolonged sport, and the rains have cleaned out the channels to such an extent that feeding grounds will be in excellent shape.

It was announced yesterday by Secretary Ernest Schaeffle that work will be commenced this summer on a new hatchery in Southern California, the first to be built in that part of the state. Several others are planned for various districts, and some of those in operation will be enlarged and improved.

MASON RETURNS FROM VISIT TO MERCED COUNTY
E. C. Mason, Richmond ice magnate, returned Thursday from Le Grande, Merced county and vicinity, where he has been visiting relatives and friends and looking after his real estate for several weeks. According to Mason the farmers in the Merced section are looking forward to bumper crops.

YARNELL VICTIM OF PARALYSIS STROKE

Stricken with paralysis while in the performance of his duties, S. F. Yarnell, who for years has been identified with the street department of this city, is in a serious condition at his Third street home. Dr. U. S. Abbott, the attending physician, is of the opinion that no immediate danger of a fatality is to be anticipated. The intense, unusual heat, combined with the old age of the stricken man, are thought to be the causes for the bringing on of the stroke. Yarnell, who has been a resident of Richmond for years, has a wide acquaintanceship and his hundreds of friends were grieved to hear of his misfortune.

In an effort to catch the church vote in the Ninth District, Senator Owens has pretended that he fought the dive-keepers of Barbary Coast, and has had one of his apologists compare him with the Adulteress in the Bible. Even if the comparison is apt, that is no reason why he should be sent back to Sacramento, where admittedly he sinned so grievously and often.

LOCAL FANS WILL MAKE TRIP TO ANTIOCH

A large number of Richmond fans are planning to attend the boxing match to be held in Antioch next Thursday night, in which Frank Mejia, a lightweight well known here, will battle for ten rounds with Gus Rainier of Seattle. Mejia has many followers in the city of Richmond, and without doubt a local delegation will be present at the ring to cheer the little battler on to victory. The fight is creating considerable interest among the up-country fans.

SUPREME LODGE OFFICER IS VISITING

Fred E. Wheaton, supreme keeper of records and seal of the Knights of Pythias, arrived here from Minneapolis, Minn., yesterday and for several hours went over Richmond, and expressed himself as surprised at the manner in which this city is forging to the front.

He was shown Pythian Castle on Fifth street and a committee from the local lodge escorted him everywhere. To these members he paid a compliment, which will linger long in their memories. He declared that of the thousands of towns he has visited none have shown so much energy and interest in Pythian affairs as has Richmond.

Wheaton has in charge "The Founder's Bible," which was used last evening to initiate thirteen members in the local lodge.

KANDY KIDS PLAN DANCE.
The Kandy Kids are planning another dance next Saturday night at East Shore Park. The affair will be the regular monthly party of the club. The committee in charge of the dance will decorate the hall today. The Pinto Orchestra of Oakland will provide the music.

James C. Owens, the legislator who does not keep his word, declares that the last Legislature was worthless, and spent most of its time frivolously, declaring that he was able to miss seven hundred and thirty-one roll calls and not miss any important bills.

SUBWAY STORE WILL OPEN TODAY

The grand opening of the Subway Cigar Store, located at the corner of Macdonald avenue and Sixteenth street, will be held this morning, and from all indications the occasion will be one of the most auspicious in the history of the city. DECORATION DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED IN POMP

The plea of the four Grand Army veterans, battle-scarred heroes, and defenders of the Union, that Richmond have a Memorial Day celebration that befits its size, will not go unanswered. Richmond will have a Memorial Day celebration and the best in her history.

Their ranks thinned more than ever, but their patriotism still as much alive as in the days when bullets were common, the aged "vets" came to the conclusion that they were not in a position to properly head-bentling exercises this year.

The Spanish War Veterans, heroes of a more recent war, have taken the burden off the shoulders of the older men and are planning exercises on May 30 that will do full justice to the size of the city and the dead heroes. All the lodges of the city will be asked to participate in the exercises and the big parade that is being arranged. Soldiers from the Presidio and sailors from ships that will be in parade, and give it a real martial appearance. One of the military bands of this section will be obtained for the day.

School children, bearing armloads of flowers to strew on the graves, will also be in the parade.

Arrangements will later be made to secure some noted orator to deliver the big address of the day.

FARO BANK GAME STILL RESTS IN OFFICE

Reposing snugly in the office of the Wells Fargo Company on Sixth street today is the faro bank outfit, which caused tongues to wag and heads to bob, as told in yesterday morning's News. The outfit is assigned to the Good Friend Amusement Company, a concern without headquarters.

Roy Patterson, president of the local acie of Eagles, stated yesterday that the company representatives had asked him concerning the use of it. A roge takes it and sells checks. Sixty per cent goes to the company and 40 per cent to the lodge. The checks sold, with which to operate the game, are not redeemable. This is the way the lot is evaded.

Patterson spoke to the chief about using the tables and was advised that it was better not to use it. Therefore the faro bank outfit is still waiting word to where it shall go.

VETERANS PLAN FOR MONSTER PICNIC

Plans for another monster picnic, similar to that of last Fourth of July, at which 3000 people from all points around the bay were present, are being made by the Spanish War Veterans, who met in Bank Hall last night and decided that the nation's birthday would again be the fitting time for the big outing. The picnic this year will be given at Grand Canyon Park. Committees to complete arrangements will be appointed.

Every member of the Spanish War Veterans in this city is requested to be present at the next meeting on April 3. At that time committees to arrange for the picnic will be appointed.

RANKS OF LOCAL PYTHIANS ARE SWELLED

Last night was an auspicious one in the history of Richmond Pythianism. Thirteen candidates were taken into the order in Oakland at Pythian Castle. The party rank was conferred on the new members on the Bible that was formerly the property of Justus H. Rathbone, founder of the order. Many noted Pythians from all over the state were in attendance. Richmond was well advertised by the local Knights. The trip was made in a special car, which was filled to overflowing. The car bore big banners on which was painted "Richmond."

The return to the city was made late last night, after the exercises.

The candidates from the local lodges that were inducted into the mysteries of Pythianism follow:

H. F. Yager, J. M. Hutchings, Carl Black, J. F. Rouleau, J. K. Smith, C. E. Sisson, C. W. Neiman, V. Manharis, W. R. Hayes, H. J. Roden, A. C. Anderson, F. J. Kane and C. E. Cassidy.

TRAINMEN BALL IS A HUGE SUCCESS

It was a packed dance floor at Pythian Castle last night when the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen gave its annual ball. Members of the order and friends of the order from far and near were present at the festivities, and when the strains of the good-night waltzes died out there was not a person in the hall who did not feel like tendering his or her personal thanks to the trainmen for the good time they were instrumental in bringing about. The music was excellent, and in a large measure was responsible for the success of the function.

The committee that was instrumental in making the ball the big success that it was follows: L. C. Bush, D. D. Carter, D. Lock, E. R. Carr, M. H. Bean and J. C. Wright. The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Carter.

CARRILLO WARNS PUBLIC TO BE CAREFUL

Superintendent Carrillo, in charge of the building of the municipal tunnel, asserts that unless pedestrians and sightseers take more precautions somebody is going to be seriously injured. The throng watching the tunnel work crowd near the shifts when the dynamite is being blown. Several narrow escapes have occurred lately.

The drifts are being rapidly extended, one of them being 25 feet inside the hill. There are live wires, motor cars and numerous other mining machines and apparatus of a dangerous nature lying about the ground and the public should be careful.
